

Pot of Gold

Calev

Pot Of Gold

When you're expecting someone to love you
And to hold you and say theyâ€™ll never leave you

To fight the fight inside of you
To know youâ€™re not alone
You have to wait until it rains,
To say that

I want my pot of gold
That you find after the rainbow
Where life is kind and I am on your shoulder
Everybody wants a somebody
And somebody wants a someone
I want that too (oooh) x 2

When your heartâ€™s drifting, like seasons are shifting
Winds of changes whirl, but dreamers keep persisting

You shun the war inside of you
You fight until youâ€™re through
But you have to wait until it rains
To say that

I want that to be you (oooh) x 2
