Still Got Tonight

Matthew Morrison

If you're not home, I'll sit here on your doorstep
Button up my coat and wait
We'll go upstairs, close the curtains and we're all set
To pick up where we left again
There's question marks hanging over us
But we won't give the time of day, oh
'Cause all we got is these few stolen seconds
And we can't let them go to waste
The stars collide, we come back to life
We come back to life
The sparks will fly, one look in your eyes
My heart's open wide
I know time's running out now
But we'll hold back the sun somehow
See the sky, we still got tonight
We still got tonight
Come 9 a.m., I'm packing every suitcase
Leave you in your bed so warm
I'll do my best not to wake you but it's useless
Can't tiptoe 'round this no more, oh
It's gonna get much harder
'Fore it gets better, baby and that's for sure
Just say you'll wait for my footsteps on the staircase
And I will walk back through this door
The stars collide, we come back to life
We come back to life
The sparks will fly, one look in your eyes
My heart's open wide
I know time's running out now
But we'll hold back the sun somehow
See the sky, we still got tonight
We still got tonight
So keep your eyes open
There's no time to close them
Just hold on so tight now
We still got tonight
If all we got is these few stolen seconds
We can't let 'em go to waste
The stars collide, we come back to life

We come back to life
The sparks will fly, one look in your eyes
My heart's open wide
I know time's running out now
But we'll hold back the sun somehow
See the sky, we still got tonight
We still got tonight
We still got tonight
We still got tonight
