

Suicide Dive Bombers

Juliette Lewis

Suicide dive bombers
it's a false colored world one of kings and misfits bombs and renagades babe now where do you fit in?
paint the colors in love recollect the dawn doctors sparing everyone poets and entertainers bathed in devils blood now wash your hands girl you're on the run nowIt's the great rock 'n' roll show it's got no place to go
 suicide dive bombers
you leave the times behind you take a look ahead
the future is ours foreverNow you see this path has all been layed out and some stones are yellow or gret littered with guillotine and razorblades I lost my mind more than once shine the light (shine the light)
 shine the light We're all revolutionaries in a way so don't you ever be afraidIt's the great rock 'n' roll show
the future is ours foreverthe movers and shakers on the wings of undertakersIt's the great rock 'n' roll show
the future is ours foreverThis day will passI'm tellin` you The future is ours forever!
