

Ballad Of Old What's His Name

Richard Swift

I wake up when I want to
And I hope for the best I got three friends and a lover
But I just don't know about the rest (Please, don't you cry anymore)
Let the record, let the record go on Well, I really don't know
I said I really don't know
I wasn't talkin' 'bout your mother
I wasn't talkin' 'bout your mother Well, well, I said I really don't know
Oh no, I really don't know
Yeah, I was talkin' 'bout your mother
Yeah, I was talkin' 'bout your mother
(Please, don't you cry anymore)
Let the record, let the record go on
