Deep Beneath an Ancient Dominion

Varathron

[Previously unreleased]The golden cities once ?Desperately loved to rose
From fathomless grey mass - Blue lakes and abyssic mountainsFear, for something that will gonna be Fear, for something that will never (gonna happen)
Mercy and mighty echoes lamentation and tearing
From a voiceless face (without ending)The shining towers of Hy-Brasyl ?Earthy and heavenly paradise
Where men walked with gods ?And with beasts of the forestTime when springtime and harvest
Were as one; flowers and fruits ?Hung heavily on every bough
Like a dream beyond the dimensions
The wind was blowing like a lover touch
Caressing the highest towers
The mist like a sinful soul ?Was searching its salvationThe time when hands moved
Only in grace and giving, the eyes smiled
The lips spoke with love without shameSpirits travelling on a labyrinth
Without fear but passion ?Bravery without bloodshedPictures from the past ?Unspoken dreams of today
Mysterious visions for the future
It time you will learn from yourself
