

Look At Me Now

Keybone

Look at me now, look at me now
Take a good look
Look at me now, look at me now Fuck the he say she say, nothing else matters more than whatever we say
All day, all night, we work, we play, all for y'all to bump it on replay
I'm just in, already got a few believers
Like justin, got myself a few beliebers
Ex-girlfriend's frenemy don't believe her, ugly ass diva
Crying me a river, soon as i spat, the bitch caught a fever
I'm that hot! never felt that way either
Now i'm sold to only the highest bidders
Feeling old before these voracious readers
A rookie before a cookie jar, it was faith that took me far
Wrong for you to think you can shoot my star
Even less, hoot at my car, take a good look, fresh with a hood look
Can't touch this, rush this or hush this, i flow freely, illy
Some say silly, do you, i'm about to do a milli, in a minute, do billi
Make an hater shout "oh really" shake the dew off my lily
Retake my city, living life to the fullest without pity
Take a good look
Look at me now
Take a good look
Look at me now
What you see is what you get
(what you see)
Take a good
What you see is what you get
(what you see)
Take a good
Look at me now
Take a good
Look at me now
If you are new to this, ain't got a clue to this Have your ears and eyes glued to this, baby, don't be feeling blue to this
I'm a rockstar, no dreadlock rasta, i make your bed rock faster
A hotter bloke,
not an ajebutter and broke, damn, that was all she wrote

I talk dough, not surprised they all took notes, i work dough
 Sometimes, ball till dawn, popping bottles till she calls it norm
 From zero to a hero's form, if it ain't coke and rum, it's probably palm wine
 Or fine wine, my watch makes it feel like i'm buying time
 Letting it shine cos it's prime time, turning up and burning up
 Waiting on the corner hoping that i will flop
 I will be a liar if i say i will stop
 Starting from the bottom means i'm all about the top, no contesting
 Beneath the 6 feet where they will rest me, don't come and test me
 I will never be dead and gone, think otherwise in your head
 You are dead and wrong, reincarnated, the same nigga hated Before your own eyes, it's evident i made it, i'm up the ladder, everyday, upgradedTake a good look
 Look at me now
 Take a good look
 Look at me now
 What you see is what you get
 (what you see)
 Take a good
 What you see is what you get
 (what you see)
 Take a good
 Look at me now
 Take a good
 Look at me nowI ain't here to prove who the boss is, salute everyone who does this
 At first, they said i couldn't burst this, what's this?
 Old mocking bastards, i'm bringing the heat, so they can't deal
 My street anthem make them stand still, i'm singing a hit, so it's mad real
 From the only nigga with a mad skill, yesterday's dreams, i attest today
 Suddenly it seems like they are vexing, hey!
 I'm perplexing,
 could be the next best thing, the ipo, you should be investing
 Now i'm grinding, airports landing, therefore standing
 Fans are demanding, heads have been banging, hands have been hanging Overall, i'm one man, no ganging, i come from where niggas run from Early birds can't tell where the sun's from Girly nerds can swear they heard some, so don't envy, come close
 Come pose, say cheese, be better composed City of gidi to jozi, we run those
 We are the in thing and pimping, we run ho's
 If you don't know, check what i have done soTake a good look
 Look at me now

Take a good look

Look at me now
