Over And Out

Foo Fighters

Restless little one
Comfortable and warm
Let me fall apart
Crippled in your arms
Chase me through the dark ready on your mark
First to reach the stars wins a broken heart
One that broke apart, shattered from the start
Are you there?
Do you read me?
Are you there?
I don't feel you anymore
Cages and alarms
Keeping us from harm
I will be the guard
Hope to rest upon
Could I be the one to break a will so strong
Pray it won't be long 'til your will is gone
Everything is done, nothing left at all
Are you there?
Do you read me?
Are you there?
I don't feel you anymore
Are you there?
Will you give in?
Are you there?
If I give out, over and out
Cages and alarms keeping us from harm
I will be the guard hope to rest upon
Everything is done, nothing left at all
Are you there?
Do you read me?
Are you there?
I don't feel you anymore
Are you there?
Will you give in?
Are you there?
If I give out
