Show Me Love (Top Ten Edit)

Building 429

Love is patient, love is kind
You love me and you don't mind
That I'm not so perfect
You know I'm unrefinedAnd my actions fail to show
But inspite of me you seem to know
That I only want to love you
I don't mean to be so coldMy words have cut you to the bone
But my heart still longs for you aloneShow me love, show me life, give me time
Because I want to shine inspite of who I am
Show me love, give me time
Because I want to shine inspite of who I amI know by you I am justified
But still I can't seem to find the line
Where my works will match my faith
And I lay myself asideAnd my actions fail to show
But inspite of me you seem to know
That I only want to love you
I can't make it on my ownWhen my mind denies the love I know
My life sends nails through your boneShow me love, show me life, give me time
Because I want to shine inspite of who I am
Show me love, give me time
Because I want to shine inspite of who I amI can't define your love but I need it I need, it yeah
I can't give enough of me but you want it, so I'll give it
I don't deserve your love but I have it, and I have it nowShow me love, show me life, give me time
Because I want to shine inspite of who I am
Show me love, give me time
Because I want to shineShow me love, show me life, give me time
Because I want to shine
Show me love, show me life, wait give me time
Because I want to shine inspite of who I am
