Highest Calling

Stan Bush

In your heart your burning with desire there's a jurning deep inside your soul
When you reach for the truth you can stop the fire Destiny is calling you Stand up and take control
And when your dreams are lifting you high above the skye
Don't try to keep yourself from falling
Find you in the voice and then you will see the lie
Can you hear your highest calling
Highest CallingTake a chance and your spirit can find the glory God for will
Nothing can stand in your way
Put your fight in your hands write your own story
You can make your own tomorrow
'cause your future starts today.And when your dreams are lifting you
high above the skye
Don't try to keep yourself from falling
Find you in the voice and then you will see the lie
Can you hear your highest calling
Highest Calling
And when they allow to your own kind
Filling your string this moment in time
You finaly reaching the top
Find them a lie and you never stopAnd when your dreams are lifting you
high above the skye
Don't try to keep yourself from falling
Find you in the voice and then you will see the lie
Can you hear your highest calling
