

Just Can't Take a Train

Dusty Drake

The last thing on your lips were mine
And the last thing in my arms was you running blind
So you can see, how it might have caught me, a little off guard
That some 3 a.m. train left for Denver in the rain
With you and my heartCHORUS:
And I just can't take a train
I just can't take the whistle or the wheels
That lonely sound, running out, on cold rails of steel
I just can't take the leavin', or you not looking back
And to this day, I just can't take a trainThere's something 'bout those stations late at night
The way that silver arrow cuts a dawn horizon, just like a knife it reminds me of you and that night we broke through the ice
Colorado all aboard and you rolled out like a storm
Without goodbyeREPEAT CHORUS
