

Monday

Room 94

You already told me a lesson
Thought I was the answer to your question
I'm feeling life for the first time
It's all wrong I'm finally moving on
My heart still feels so low
Playing on the strings
I still think I'm part of your history but I can see a future for me
At the bottom of your stairs
Ask if I'm okay you know what
I say, I kinda wished you stayed Since you left
Everyday feels like a Monday
All my friends tell me that I'll be okay in the end
I don't wanna wake up early for you
Never wanna break up you and me
Since you left woahhhh
I'm such a wreck, woahhh
I'm such a wreck, woahhh
Such a wreck, such a wreck, such a wreck Now I gotta clear my head
Try to get away and forget what she said
Sleeping in a lonely bed
Think I was anywhere else instead
I feel so low, so lost without you but you're on your own
'Til it makes me feel alright
Makes me nearly smile
Does that make me a bad guy?
I wish we never said goodbye
I wish you stayed
I kinda wish you stayed
I really miss you babe
I really miss you babe Since you left
Everyday feels like a Monday
All my friends tell me that I'll be okay in the end
I don't wanna wake up early for you
Never wanna break up you and me
Since you left woahhh
I'm such a wreck, woahhh
I'm such a wreck, woahhh
I don't wanna wake up early for you
Never wanna break up you and me

Since you left woahhh
I'm such a wreck
