We Belong

Sin Fang Bous

I'm waiting for you to find me
I'm waiting for that voice to fall asleepI would never stay here without you
My hands are here
But my heart, my heart is so far awayI'm happy you torn me apart
I fell into the lake to forget who you areYou are this fox in the box within
Your hands are here
But your heart, your heart is so far awayI'm sorry I torn you apart
I fell into the lake to find out where we belongI would never stay here without you
Your hands are here
But my heart, my heart is so far awayYou are this fox in the box within
Your hands are here
But your heart, your heart is so far away
