

Scribble (feat. the Eden Project)

Puppet

Oh, we're out of time
The final call is calling,
The light falls lightly,
Between us,
Before tomorrow comes,
And it all gets lost again,
The ashes burn down brightest,
When we've everything to lose
So scribble me out,
Mistakes erased,
Forgotten,
Life goes on,
Without me. But she said trust me
These are the stories we will tell,
As I stood frozen,
Infinite I almost fell,
But I got a feeling
And my heart starts beating
A sudden rush of feeling alive
This is freedom
And I won't change
I won't phase out
I'm no ghost,
Let me go.
