Believe

Flowing Tears

the end of light, a snow white blame a broken girl in neon rain the next in line, drink acid rain tickle spiders when they crawlso testify a murder's game the devil's mark on sister's name keep your bird in a silver cage close your eyes until you fallbelieve we will walk again believe there's a stronger flame no regret if we would fall (recall - together we follow) go carry the word!the end of fright, a Neverland step back and wait for punishment they cut your hair on Friday night feed the serpents on the runtake a walk unseen by man illuminate the moon again close your eyes and count to ten pull the trigger of a gunbelieve we will walk again believe there's a stronger flame
(recall - together we follow)
go carry the word to the world!poisoned be our water poisoned be our wine and if the fire steps between us hairy spiders by my side paradise forever - is that all you have in plan? and if the spotlight turns towards you would you stay until the end?
