

Honest

Gary Go

When this all settles down
I'm gonna turn it all around
I'm tired of trying to dig myself out of holes
Only to wind up deeper under the ground
When will all this settle down? I've gotta stop, I've gotta stop
Putting it off, I've gotta be honest
It's not a lot, it's not a lot
But what will it cost if I am honest? So you think we can tamper with fate
If we can, I think it's too late
Was starting to make so much sense
But things change as quick as a click
Of the fingers, there's no defense
When will all this settle down? I've gotta stop, I've gotta stop
Putting it off, I've gotta be honest
It's not a lot, it's not a lot
But what will it cost if I am honest? I'm tired of hiding
There's no more room
To keep any secrets
And I don't wanna dim your light
I just wanna do what's right
The truth is all I have to give, yeah, I know
I've gotta stop, I've gotta stop
Putting it off, I've gotta be honest
It's not a lot, it's not a lot
But what will it cost if I am honest? I've gotta stop, I've gotta stop
Putting it off, I've gotta be honest
It's not a lot, I know it's not a lot
But what will it cost if I am honest?
