I can't believe what I'm feeling now
After all that it's time I was far down
Their broken lives should show the way
Far past anything they say
(They say)I can't resist anything you give
Every single part of the way you live
I don't know if this is so right
But I will never forget this nightI'll make this forever
And take you here with me
I'll make this forever
It's what I needThis is the end of what's always been
All the hate they bring doesn't mean a thing
When you're in this place standin' here with me
Everything I need I can almost seeWhy am I so alone
When there's so many around?
Everyone now is not the same
As I slowly drift awayI'll make this forever
And take you here with me
I'll make this forever
It's what I need(You don't know why?)
Why am I so alone
When there's so many around?
Everyone now is not the same
As I slowly drift awayI'll make this forever
And take you here with me
I'll make this forever
It's what I needYeah
Yeah
Yeah
Yeah
