Blood Like Lemonade

Morcheeba

Healing holy man, once upon a time
He lived for his wife up until the crime
Hunting high and low to seek revenge
Brand new moral code, got made reluctant renegade
Leaving empty souls when he avenged
Evil spirits flowed, he drank the blood like lemonade
Cozy campfire crowd with a case of wine
I'm feeling fine
Bounty hunter now and it crossed the line
Cross that line
Hunting high and low to seek revenge
Brand new moral code, got made reluctant renegade
Leaving empty souls when he avenged
Evil spirits flowed, he drank the blood like lemonade
In the border town, down in Mexico
They let him go
Lore and order now 'cause he runs the show
So now you know
Hunting high and low, exact revenge
Brand new moral code, got made reluctant renegade
Leaving empty souls when he avenged
Evil spirits flowed, he drank the blood like lemonade
Hunting high and low, exact revenge
Brand new moral code, got made reluctant renegade
Leaving empty souls when he avenged
Evil spirits flowed, he drank the blood like lemonade
He drank the blood like lemonade
He drank the blood like lemonade
He drank the blood like lemonade
