Why

Crossfade

Walking madly, feeling strangely
And I'm not sure where to go
I got a funny feeling, have I lost my meaning
Wish I could go homeYou said you were leaving, I didn't let it affect me
Sat on a bar and let them flow
Now lost and lonely, I wish you never told me
What I didn't wanna knowAnd I will crawl on my own
I'm taken by your smile
As I'm lying, beside you dying
Inside I don't knowWhy I try to save this
When all I ever wanna do
Is get it as far as I can go
Well, it's nothing left of me andYou're now worthless
To me you are no more
I'm as far as I can go
Nothing left of me and youAs if the buzz would help me, think it just maybe crazy
It can't pull me out of this hole
Say you could not save me, you wouldn't stay to watch me
It was too much on your soulAnd now I'm feeling alright, to get us back to rise
And you know where I can't find
No longer living badly, it seemed to be bad timing
'Cause you walked into the nightAnd I will crawl on my own
I'm taken by your smile
As I'm lying, beside you dying
Inside I don't know whyWhy I try to save this
When all I ever wanna do
Is get it as far as I can go
Well, it's nothing left of me andYou're now worthless
To me you are no more
I'm as far as I can go
Nothing left of me and you
There's nothing left of me and youAnd I will crawl on my own
I'm taken by your smile
As I'm lying, beside you dying
Inside I don't know
Why, come on, why, come on
