Where She Runs

Rusted Root

Where she Runs
Where she Runs to now
Where she Runs
Where she Runs to feel
Where she Runs
Where she runs nobody seems to mind
Nobody
Nobody told me No one told me it was her
No one told me No one told me I could see her
Where she runs no one told me but herWell see her feel her
See her feel her Where she runs to now
Where she feels to now
Where she runs to now
Where she feels
Where she feels to nowNever have I learned to love her before X2
Never have I seen herWhere she runs
It's a simple thing simple thing well to love once again to love
Although it feels like never like this before
Come and feel your hands on my side
