Hyolyn - Tears For Each Other English Translation

Don't look at me with sad eyes

I can see your aching heart

If you're gonna do this, you should've just left me

If you just give me tears, what do I do?
I'm afraid I'll be pacing back and forth in memories
I'm afraid you'll remain as long as I erase you
So I can't let you go

You and I, we became tears to each other
But going back in time, on that dazzling day
When we held each other like a dream
Remember us of back then
The small window in my heart
Is filled with sad longing
Even in my dreams, it colors you
There was no start so there will be no end
Even if I take out the word goodbye in my heart
My heart tells me no

You and I, we became tears to each other
But going back in time, on that dazzling day
When we held each other like a dream
Remember us of back then
The only person

To wipe my tears, to hold my heart
Like the season that comes again after twelve months has passed
You will come to me as well

You and I, we became tears to each other
But going back in time, on that dazzling day
When we held each other like a dream
Remember us of back then
