

Am I High

N.e.r.d.

Didn't you know I can help or hurt you?
So there's no reason to lie
I bet you let those other niggas jerk you
An' convince you that they are fly
I never said I was an angel
Said but I ain't like those other guys, listen
You're convinced our experience re-arranged you
Well maybe you should re-examine how you tried
Or am I high?
Hey, am I high? Yeah, oh no
Am I high?
High, yeah, oh no
I think I've loved you since our high school
But you only wanted friends of mine
So when they replied, 'Her? She's cool?'
Only then you gave our friendship time
You won't say it but you think I'm changin'
Is it 'cause the whole world calls me 'Drugs'?
But didn't I say I can help or hurt you?
You should be paranoid without me
An' with me feel a buzz, is that cocky?
Or am I high?
Hey, am I high? Yeah, oh no
Am I high?
High, yeah, oh no
It's the kinda high that got me leanin'
120 speedin' in the rain, meanin' of a hydroplane
Play both sides of the field, see I know 'caine
Keep 'em high like Kurt Cobain
Listen, I'm known for speakin' my mind
Known for fleein' from the scene of a crime
Eyes redder than the beam of my nine
Eyes redder than the scene of that crime
All for the love of the lime, I'm so high
Insinuatin' you're not that way
I see how you look an' use your eyes
But when I ask you can I jump in
Then you start again with the lies
But if I dare you, you'd blow a kiss to another

Though my friends have no idea who you could be
Don't worry, I would never tell another
But I ate your pussy as you laid there beside her
Yes, she was asleep
But am I high?
Hey, am I high? Yeah, oh no
Am I high?
High, yeah, oh no
Am I high?
Why am I sittin' here, peerin' the sky?
Is there somethin' inside of me or am I high?
From when we talk on the phone 'til when we fuck
This sounds like deep lust to me
But I get high on your love
High, high
