

Beatin' My Head Against the Wall

Danni Leigh

(Kenny Alphin/Danni Leigh) Beatin' my head against the wall
Love can't be figured out at all
I thought the whole thing through
Don't know what else to do
I'm beatin' my head against the wall What a situation
The perfect combination
We fit together like a puzzle
There was no mistakin'
A true love in the makin'
I didn't forsee any trouble So how was I to know he'd be the two-timin' kind
Just sparin' me a heartache with his lies Beatin' my head against the wall
Love can't be figured out at all
I thought the whole thing through
Don't know what else to do
I'm beatin' my head against the wall I looked him in the eye
Said this is my goodbye
You and I will soon be history
He fell down to his knees
Cryin' baby, please
Don't leave me, I'm so sorry Now I'm all alone, thinkin' I'm the one to blame
'Cause his memory is drivin' me insane Beatin' my head against the wall
Love can't be figured out at all
I thought the whole thing through
Don't know what else to do
I'm beatin' my head against the wall I thought the whole thing through
Don't know what else to do
I'm beatin' my head against the wall
Yeah, I'm beatin' my head against the wall
Beatin' my head against the wall
