

As She Whispers

Julia Fordham

my god's sleeping on a bed of creamy clouds hoping to go unnoticed far from the madding crowd as she whispers, oh, as she whispers, oh baby baby baby baby baby baby baby baby baby hush now sleep
 baby baby baby baby baby baby baby baby
 as she gently weeps
 my god's walking on a lake of frozen love saying "where's the perfect plan that I sent down from us above?"
as she whispers, oh, as she whispers, oh
 baby baby baby baby baby baby baby baby
 hush now sleep
 baby baby baby baby baby baby baby baby
 as she gently weeps
 red blood on golden sands what's happening in the promised land?
as she whispers, oh, as she whispers, oh
 as she whispers, oh
 baby baby baby baby baby baby baby baby
 hush now sleep
 baby baby baby baby baby baby baby baby
 as she gently weeps
