

Gate and Garden

Stevie Nicks

There is a gate, it can be guarded
Well, it is not heaven and it has a garden
So to the red rose grows the passion And the guardian, well, it's now you know
It's just a few days away
It's now you know and it's then
It's just a game that we play
Someone steals it Someone steals it away, scares you to death
You don't give in to yourself
You give in to your friends
Don't send an answer
How many times have you said Do I love you?
Well, I always did every night
Nobody knows nothing 'bout it Well, it's now you know, it's everywhere
You say you seek the truth, I say all is fair
Don't send an answer
How many times have you said Do I love you every night?
Well, I always did
Nobody knows nothin' 'bout it Do I love you?
Well, I always did every night
Nobody knows nothin' 'bout it
They know nothing 'bout it
They know nothing 'bout it Do I love you, ooh?
Do I love you, ooh?
Do I love you, aah?
Do I love you, ooh?
