

Waterproof Mascara

Sheryl Crow

So he wants to know
Does Superman really need to wear his cape to fly?
Where does rain come from?
And can I play outside?
All my friends have daddies, mommy why don't I? And so I wear waterproof mascara
There's things you shouldn't see when you're a kid
Thank God they make waterproof mascara
'Cause it won't run like his daddy did So I'm dating again
Letting my guard down is just so hard to do
Never introduced my son to someone new
'Cause if I get my heart broke
I know he will too And that's why I wear waterproof mascara
Some things you shouldn't see when you're a kid
Thank God they make waterproof mascara
'Cause it won't run like his daddy did I can throw the ball out in the yard
Teach him how to fish
How to drive a car
But in my heart, it just won't be enough
We've always gotten by somehow
I may not need a man right now
But I know he does Thank God they make waterproof mascara
'Cause it won't run like his daddy did
That's why I wear waterproof mascara

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>