

Non Believer

La Rocca

She belongs somewhere else, away from my side so run with what you got, and chase with what you need i believe the faithful fell, didn't know their way back so far away from home, but brother you're not alone and i promise to climb back up here to you waiting for this message coming through is it mine? is it mine?
as she pulls inside
is it mine? is it mine?
how the lights go white do you take the non-believers/ cause i'm a non-believer she belongs somewhere else, where pain isn't hope yet lives get every chance, not part of every plan
i believe the faithful fell, didn't know their way back so far away from home, but brother you're not alone is it mine? is it mine?
as she pulls inside
is it mine? is it mine?
how the lights go white do you take the non-believers/ cause i'm a non-believer do you take the non-believers/ cause i'm a non-believer
do you take the non-believers/ cause i'm a non-believer
do you take the non-believers/ cause i'm a non-believer I am the only one?
do you take the non-believers/ cause i'm a non-believer
