

Everything

Michael Stanley

Better be sure
There's no way to turn back once we have begun
So put the chain on the door
Lock the world outside
You're not cheating anyone
Except maybe yourself and the things you feel
Things you must conceal from everyone
Put the ring on the shelf
I'm here for only you
We do what you want to do
I leave when it's done
Just close your eyes
Tell me everything
Free your mind
You'll soon feel everything
Hold on tight to me
I'll do everything
Cause in my words
You deserve having everything
So hard to ignore our mutual interest
And your arresting eyes
Never ever before
A more sure casting
No need in asking why
Drop your robe to the floor
Let me kiss your insides
I know ecstasy hides deep in you
Allow me to explore your mystery
Set our souls free
I think that you should
Just close your eyes
Tell me everything
Free your mind
You'll soon feel everything
Hold on tight to me
I'll do everything
In my words you deserve having everything
All I want to do is be of service to you
I think you know what I mean

All you want anytime
Just give to me a sign
Cause you deserve everything
Better be sure
There's no way to turn back
Once we have begun
So put the chain on the door
Just close your eyes
Tell me everything
Hold on tight to me
Cause in my world
