

Porcelain Heart (Acoustic Version)

BarlowGirl

Broken heart, one more time
Pick yourself up, why even cry
Broken pieces in your hands
Wonder how you'll make it whole You know, you pray, this can't be the way
You cry, you say, something's gotta change
And mend this porcelain heart of mine, of mine Someone said a broken heart
Would sting at first then make you stronger
You wonder why this pain remains
Were hearts made whole just to break You know, you pray, this can't be the way
You cry, you say, something's gotta change
And mend this porcelain heart of mine, of mine Creator only you take brokenness
And create it into beauty once again You know, you pray, this can't be the way
You cry, you say, something's gotta change You know, you pray, this can't be the way
You cry, you say, something's gotta change
And mend this porcelain heart
Please mend this porcelain heart of mine, of mine Creator mend this heart
