Scars

Blackfield

Brightest city buried in the dust
Lonely people stop and stare at us
Together you and me are getting lost
The sky fallsIt's getting hard for me to see the truth
I lost my soul and gave myself to you
You are an angel and the Devil too
A tear fallsAll I left are my precious scars
All I left are my precious scarsI watch a teardrop falling from your eyes
You are so perfect when you cry
In the corner all our endings lie
Alone nowAll I left are my precious scars
All I left are my precious scarsIt's me that you need now
It's me that you love nowAll I left are my precious scars
All I left are my precious scarsAll I left are my precious scars
I wish I was immune then it wouldn't hurt
All I left are my precious scars
I wish I was immune then it wouldn't hurtI wish I was immune then it wouldn't hurt
