

Hello Cruel World

Gretchen Peters

Haven't done as well as I thought I would
I'm not dead but I'm damaged goods
And it's gettin' late
I'm a rusty hinge, a squeaky wheel
At the bad end of a shaky deal
Cursed by the hand of fate
And ooooooh - I'm a very lucky girl
Yeah ooooooh - hello cruel world I'm a ticking clock, a losing bet
A girl without a safety net
I'm a cause for some concern
You don't live this long without regrets
Telephone calls you don't wanna get
Stones you'd rather leave unturned
But ooooooh - the grain of sand becomes the pearl
Yeah ooooooh - hello cruel world
Some folks go the easy route
Numb the pain or put the lights out
Either way they got to go
Me I'm gonna stick around
In for a penny in for a pound
Cause I hate to miss the show
And ooooooh - I'm a very stubborn girl
Yeah ooooooh - hello cruel world
Hello cruel world
