Kiss Me Goodbye

Johnathan Rice

Yeah like an ugly James Dean, I was waiting for you
But I was never what you were looking for Yeah I remember all the days I tasted you on my lip
I was in a haze, I was in a hazeOh you know it's so hard to let you go
I'm feeling so down, yeah I was low
I leave it to die and then divide
Kiss me goodbye, kiss me goodbyeNow baby make the bed, just destroy it again
Like you always did, like you did before
Yeah I heard you call my name from the top of the stairs
It'll never be the same, it'll never be the sameOh you know it's so hard to let you go
I'm feeling so down, yeah I was low
I leave it to die and then divide
Kiss me goodbye, kiss me goodbyeDoes anybody else here feel half alive
Staring out the corner of your eyes, your eyesOh you know it's so hard to let you go
I'm feeling so down, yeah I was low
I leave it to die and then divide
And kiss me goodbye, come kiss me goodbyeWell so long baby you kiss me goodbye
So long baby, goodbye
Well so long baby kiss me goodbye
So long baby, goodbye
