Pool Of Fears

Scars Of Life

I feel it all surround me
Breathe all your hate into my lungs
I know that you can't stand me
Cannot help the way that I've become
But all I wanted to be was
So much more than I am now
It doesn't even matter
The thoughts from you were just so loudI'm not afraid
I've been here for so long
Escape from me
My world is breaking downI try to see right through this
But I think you know the way I feel
Cannot see beyond this
It all just seems so unreal
So hard to peel
This mask of you that's on my face
I feel it running through me
Those thoughts of you that I disgracedI'm not afraid
I've been here for so long
Escape from me
My world is breaking downIs there a way to feel this?
The thoughts inside my head
But in the pool of fears I swim in, I hold on to the ledgeRight, its not rightI'm not afraid
I've been here for so long
Escape from me
My world is breaking downIs there a way to feel this?
It's coming to me
The thoughts inside my head, they flow within me
But in the pool of fears I'm out onto the ledge
I hold on to the ledge
But in the pool of fears I swim away from you
