

Lullaby Of The Crucified

Alesana

Lullaby of the crucified- Alesana . My angel close your eyes

I'll be your lover tonight

Pitiful lullaby

I'll be your lover tonight

My own misery is taunting me

The air stings my lungs

I can barely see

Wicked eyes surrounding me

The trees are watching silently

I could try to run

But baby what's the point

I may never know

(I don't see the point)

Why I let you go

My body is aching

(I'm loosing my mind)

There's nothing to hold on to

My angel close your eyes

I'll be your lover tonight

I'm tired of trying

(I'm sick of waiting)

If there's nothing that I can do

Pitiful lullaby

(to sing the tortured to sleep)

We could settle down

And change the end

Nothing but time

Start over agin

All the little things you do

That make me fall in love with you

Have lead me to this

(a bittersweet abyss)

I may never know
(A vexatious kiss)
Why I let you go

My body is aching
(I'm losing my mind)
There's nothing to hold on to

My angel close your eyes
I'll be your lover tonight

I'm tired of trying
(I'm sick of waiting)
If there's nothing I can do

Pitiful lullaby
(to sing the tortured to sleep)

I will follow you into the night
(my darling eyes)
I would do
Anything to be
Lying with you
As I watch you
Dream

I have been reborn!
I have broken free! I'm free! I'm free!
You can't deny me, do not defy me!
I'm drunk on lust and sovereignty!
Abandon all hope for beyond time I can stand!
I have been reborn!
Darling, tonight we say goodbye!
Sing a touching lullaby and we'll watch the angels cry
