Profane Creation

Bolt Thrower

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Constructed with vengeful hate
The extinction of life, man's final plight
We strive until the end
Though none shall be taken aliveA killing machine, programmed for death
To destroy all that comes within his sight
Mindless, created insane
Mankind shall never survive, never surviveStrength becoming weaker
As fear grows within
Faced with eternal damnation
The end shall now beginProfane creation
The dawn of a new age
Technology's progression
Over man machines reignEnslaved without compassion
New masters of the earth we dwell
Human life is worthless
In this automated living hellIn the quest for perfection, life becomes obsolete
Humanity faces deletion, this nightmare world is complete
As we wait for execution, in silence we stand in line
The total extinction of the existence of mankindOur futile life's now ended
Free from the suffering and pain
Our systems now are loaded
We have been created profaneProfane creation
The dawn of a new age
Technology's progression
Over man machines reignEnslaved without compassion
New masters of the earth we dwell
Human life is worthless
In this automated living hellIn the quest for perfection, life becomes obsolete
Humanity faces deletion, this nightmare world is complete
As we wait for execution, silent we stand in line
The total extinction of the existence of mankind
