

Haunting Me

OONA

Everywhere I go, I see your face
Every sound I hear is the sound of your voice
 Why are you haunting me?
 Why are you haunting me?
Why can't I let you go, go? Why are you haunting me?
 Why are you haunting me?
 Why are you haunting me?
Why are you haunting me? Everything about me is a lie
At least it feels that way when I look in your eyes now
 The truth scares the shit out of me
 Whoever said love is real and love is blood
 Has never felt the way that I do
What does it matter?
What's done is done and I should get on with my life
 Why are you haunting me?
 Why are you haunting me?
Why are you haunting me? Well, I don't know what it means
 But I can't seem to make myself forget
 Was it something that you said?
Was it all the guilt inside my head? Why are you haunting me?
 Why are you haunting me?
 Why are you haunting me?
Why are you haunting me? Why are you haunting me?
 Why are you haunting me?
