An Ordinary Day

Bent

It began just like another ordinary day, and an ordinary way
I watched you hurried by, you looked so shy
It began just like another ordinary day, and an ordinary way
I watched you hurried by, you looked so shyIt began just like another ordinary day, and an ordinary way
I watched you hurried by, you looked so shy
It began just like another ordinary day, and an ordinary way
I watched you hurried by, you looked so shyI watched you hurried by
I watched you hurried byI watched you hurried by
I watched you hurried byI watched you hurried by
I watched you hurried by
