Prurient

Crosses

How come you never rest your tongue?
How can you ever expect to learn?
I know you want to chase it
But dont want to break your stride
I know you want to taste it
But dont want to waste your mindI know you want to try it so go and dive in
Taste it, like it
Theyve got you so excited
You want to climb in Taste the violenceBetween the razors and the hooks
And from the blood that you cough up
I see you want a taste,
But dont want to wreck your life
I think you know the game,
So go ahead and take a bite
I know you want to try it,
so go and dive in
Taste it, like it
Theyve got you so excited,
You want to climb in
Taste the violenceUncovering your eyes
Rediscovering the high
Uncovering your eyes
Rediscovering the high
