Never Enders (Post-Hardcore.RU)

The Color Morale

And I'm too abused to walk away from this
Of all I've been through I just wouldn't change it
If I could go back in time and change everything
I wouldn't change a thing because it made me who I am
And I'm so confused
I don't seem to know what's real or what's make believe anymore but I must move forward for you
And do this all for you
Without you there is no me and I'll stay even if you choose to leave
The world will always keep turning it's back on me
And I just wouldn't change itIf I could go back in time and change everything I wouldn't change a thing because it made me
I am not leaving this room tonight until I know that I've changed at least one life
And you are not leaving not knowing, not knowing how you are changing minePlease don't sing louder than me unless your singing with a heart backing a beat
Then you'll know there's a reason for this song to find you and sing alongThis is not another singalong
This is one breath made from different lungs
