

I'm In the Mood to Be Desired Tonight

John Denver

Another day is over
I'm on my way home
Knowing you'll be waiting
Is all I need to know 'Cause I'm in the mood to be desired
Wrap your arms around me
I'm in the mood let's build a fire
Till the embers retire
We'll be lost in a world of ecstasy Forget about your troubles
Forget about my woes
You're the one who comforts me
Whenever I feel low 'Cause I'm in the mood to be desired
Wrap your arms around me
I'm in the mood let's build a fire
Till the embers retire
We'll be lost in a world of ecstasy You're everything I could imagine
You fill me up with such passion
Eternity is not long enough for you and me 'Cause I'm in the mood to be desired
Wrap your arms around me
I'm in the mood let's build a fire
Till the embers retire
We'll be lost in a world of ecstasy
