Not There Yet

Eric Hutchinson

I don?t want to work anymore
I just want to live instead
Everyone is saying I?m all grown up
I?ve come a long way, but I?m not there yet
I?ve come a long way, but I?m not there yet.
Where did the summer go?
I was just hitting my stride
It?s this insanity, takes me along for the ride
I swam the oceans and the seven seas
Knowing that fate would strike eventually
You?ve got to hit rock bottom if you want to come out on top
I don?t want to work anymore
I just want to live instead
Everyone is saying I?m all grown up
I?ve come a long way, but I?m not there yet
I?ve come a long way, but I?m not there yet.
Where did the winter go?
I just got used to the cold
And it?s immaturity, keeps me from getting too old

Now I saw a snowfall on a thousand towns
With a sense of purpose I had just been found
You?ve got to run real far before you ever feel close to home
I don?t want to work anymore
I just want to live instead
Everyone is saying I?m all grown up
I?ve come a long way, but I?m not there yet
I?ve come a long way, but I?m not there yet.
You know I?m not there yet
Been working myself into a lonely state
You know I?m not there yet
Been breaking my back to find another way
It?s been a long time coming
I deserve to take a holiday
I don?t want to work anymore
I just want to live instead
Everyone is saying I?m all grown up
I?ve come a long way, but I?m not there yet
I?ve come a long way, but I?m not there yet.
