Voices

Slateface

In my mind there are voices
There are shadows
Echoes of the past
Haunting me
Reminding me
That there's nothing left
And no way of Escape

Then I looked up into the Open Sky
And then I saw you
Radiance of life

Desperate Soul lost and abandoned
Who will save me
From this present Misery?
I'm calling out, I'm screaming out
Is there anyone that's listening to me?

Then I looked up into the Open Sky
And then I saw you
Radiance of life
