Day Tripping

Sharleen Spiteri

Youre not the kinda guy
I'd wanna meet in a [Incomprehensible]
Local celebrity of the neighborhood
Suburban legend
Everyone knows who he is
But no one knows his name(Its alright)
Day tripper
(Alright)
Spent all his money(Its alright)
Day tripper
(Alright)
Spent his honestyTheres no answer
You believe that this is heaven
Said I'd be your lover
Maybe I should leave you hanging
Im much stronger than you know
So come on and let your love showNow how can you be so proud
When youre sinking deep into the ground?
The great pretender waiting to be found
Time passes slowly, oh, so slowly
When you are lost inside your dream(Its alright)
Day tripper
(Alright)
Spent all his money(Its alright)
Day tripper
(Alright)
Spent his honestyTheres no answer
You believe that this is heaven
I said I'd be your lover
Maybe I should leave you hanging
Im much stronger than you know
So come on and let your love showTheres no answer
You believe that this is heaven
I said I'd be your lover
Maybe I should leave you hanging
Im much stronger than you know
So come on and let your love showSaid I'd be your lover, said I'd be your lover
Said I'd be your lover, said I'd be your lover
(You believe that this is heaven)

Said I'd be your lover, said I'd be your lover
(You believe that this is heaven)Said I'd be your lover, said I'd be your lover
Said I'd be your lover, said I'd be your lover
Said I'd be your lover, said I'd be your loverLet your love go, said I'd be your lover
Let your love show, cause I said I'd be your lover
