

Not Anymore

Nine Inch Nails

Surprise

I must have let it get in
Started to turn in to some body else
Yeah I found myself believing
Time my feet are nailed to the floor
I always thought we would get there somehow
I always thought there'd be more Well not anymore
Well not anymore
Well not anymore Mouth taped shut
Crippled and frozen with fear
That may be happens to somebody else
No that doesn't happen round here
I wont forget I know who I am
No matter what I know who I am
And what im doing this for
Well not anymore (and I can't seem to wake up)
Well not anymore (and I can't seem to wake up)
Well not anymore (and I can't seem to wake up)
