

Turbo Style

Beckah Shae

Cause nothing can stop me now, Im a turbo on the ground
Im focused, Im focused, Im focused, Im focused, Im focused
Yeah, I might seem real small but Im about to get real tall
Cause Im a believer that all things are possible
And theres no way this world could change me
Cause Im breathing the impossible
And theres no limit to my dreaming
Been the Underdog for so long, no more, I got my helmet on
Cut to the finish line, Im all in oops ya missed it where ya been?
Gotta catch up if you wanna fly like this
Cause my eyes are full of light and Im so, so, so, so focused
Turbo style
Yeah, I just keep moving forward, forward and faster
Faster, stronger, stronger
I just keep flying further, further and wiser
Wiser, higher, higher
Take the limits off, take em off
On your mark, on your mark, on your mark
Get ready, get ready set, go
Turbo style
Nothin can slow me down cause I see when and then and now
And Im focused, Im focused, Im focused, Im focused, Im focused
You might see a small flame but Im about to be a blaze
Cause Im a believer that I can do anything
Theres no power greater than the spirit in me
Ive got everything that I need
Cause no defeat can beat the winner that lives in me
Been the Underdog for so long, no more, I got my helmet on
Cut to the finish line, Im all in oops, ya missed it where ya been
Gotta catch up if you wanna fly like this
Cause my eyes are full of light and Im so, so, so, so focused
Turbo style
Yeah, I just keep moving forward, forward and faster
Faster, stronger, stronger
I just keep flying further, further and wiser
Wiser, higher, higher
Take the limits off, take em off
On your mark, on your mark, on your mark
Get ready, get ready set, go

Turbo style

Theres no telling where we can go
Our eyes have never seen, our ears have never heard
And our mind has not imagined
Divine favor, cause I'm Royal
Pop the cap off, I'm gonna need some more oil
Got some more air so I feel like flying
Boost High speed, Im winning and I ain't even trying Upgrade, Im on my way, I aint afraid to go higher
God made, Yah, I'm a blade I aint afraid to grow sharper
Got so more flow, & now you see me all shining
Super Increase, Im winning, Haters, I just keep defying
Yeah, I just keep moving forward, forward and faster
Faster, stronger, stronger
I just keep flying further, further and wiser
Wiser, higher, higher
Take the limits off, take em off
On your mark, on your mark, on your mark
Get ready, get ready set, go
