Kill the Deceiver

Sacred Steel

Strike the weak deceiver let him taste the iron fist the truth of strong believers will crush the enemyKill the deceiver deceivers must be dead death to those who kill the truth die by our attackTrue force of iron glory crash course of righteous hate you know we feel no sorry when bones of sinners breakSacred steel warriors to fight until the end our fate to feel the truth of steel while others just pretend we'll never stop to fight for truth metal is our way deceivers die while we stand high and revel in their pain
