

Extraordinary

Mandy Moore

I was a bay tree quiet and unseen
I lived in stories but inside I kept a mystery
I was a starling, nobodys darling
Flying in perfect circles just for company And now Im ready and now Im ready
And now Im ready to be extraordinary A midnight airplane, a window glowing
I know I am another sparkle in the sky
I shine on copper still undiscovered
But you might see me in the corner of your eye And now Im ready and now Im ready
And now Im ready to be extraordinary Waking up to wake up someday
I am my own prey
Stopping off at a sidewalk cafe
The wind is playing in the trees
Kicking up confetti leaves
Seems as if its all to say And now Im ready, yeah now Im ready
And now Im ready to be
(Extraordinary)
And now Im ready and now Im ready
And now Im ready to be extraordinary, extraordinary
