

Feelings

Fabienne Bergmans

When you tell me you love me please be true that for ever and ever you always will do yeah tell me this is love but why I'm feeling ?blue? please tell me just once how can I ever trust you how can I love you, how can I care can I trust you with all the things that we share tell me how can I care how can I share my feelings
 my feelings
when you know just how to make me feel not so broken can I rely on the words that you spoken would you give up your freedom for me husband and wife tell me what do you see how can I love you how can I care
 tell me how can I care
 what you see is not what you get with you please just tell me was you ever told me the truth when you told me bad i love you and I will always care to me bad I could trust you with the things that we shared tell me how how how can I care
 how can I care
 how can I share
 to me
 and you're not true
