

Hammer Song

Alex Harvey

"Oh please, don't sell me out", said the man with the hammer, hammering the anvil

    "I've been walking on the road of rocks

    and I keep on hammering, Keep on hammering, keep on hammering hammering the anvil."

"Don't let the sun go down," said the man with the fire, firing the furnace

    "I've been buried in the snow and I keep on firing, keep on firing, firing the furnace." "Don't talk to me", said the man with the chisel, chiseling the surface

    "I've been sleeping far too long, and I keep on chiseling, keep on chiseling, keep on chiseling chiseling the surface."

"I don't know what you mean", said the man with the shovel, shoveling the ashes,

    "I've been diggin in the frozen ground, and I keep on shoveling, keep on shoveling, keep on shoveling, shoveling the ashesChiseling the surface,

    Firing the furnace,

    Hammering the anvil

Hammering the anvil." Oh please, don't sell me out", said the man with the hammer, hammering the anvil

    "I've been walking on the road of rocks,

    and I keep on hammering, keep on hammering, keep on hammering,
        hammering the anvil."

    Shoveling the ashes

    Chiseling the surface

    Firing the furnace

    Hammering the anvil.Keep it on, keep it on, keep it on!

    Hammering the anvil.
