

Ashamed

Sever Your Ties

Your heart is breaking, you're feeling dead

Love is here for the taking

Tired, restless and full of fear

You say the words that you shouldn't
This is everything you wanted

Is it good enough?

This is everything you needed

Is it good enough?

Many things have been done, everything I feel ashamed for what it's worth

And I can't complain 'cause I'm still loved

I feel ashamed for what it's worth

And I can't complain 'cause I'm still loved
This is everything

Is it good enough? No

This is everything

Is it good enough? No
You're heart is binding, some things new

And you're feeling lively

Never back to the old thing

You called a person but so untrusting
This is everything you wanted

Is it good enough?

This is everything you needed

Is it good enough?

Many things have been done, everything I feel ashamed for what it's worth

And I can't complain 'cause I'm still loved

I feel ashamed for what it's worth

And I can't complain 'cause I'm still loved
I can feel the world on my shoulders

'Cause I'm still loved

I can feel the world on my shoulders
