

Pop Song 89

The Bombsters

Hello, I saw you, I know you, I knew you
I think I can remember your name
(Name)
Hello, I'm sorry, I lost myself
I think I thought you were someone else Should we talk about the weather?
(Hi, hi, hi)
Should we talk about the government?
(Hi, hi, hi, hi) Hello, how are you, I know you, I knew you
I think I can remember your name
(Name)
Hello, I'm sorry, I lost myself
I think I thought you were someone else Should we talk about the weather?
(Hi, hi, hi)
Should we talk about the government?
(Hi) Hello, my friend, are you visible today?
You know I never knew
That it could be so strange
(So strange)
Hello, I'm sorry, I lost myself
I think I thought you were someone else Should we talk about the weather?
(Hi, hi, hi)
Should we talk about the government?
(Hi, hi, hi, hi)
